Noecker News – Principal

Ms. Greenwald welcomed Ms. Somers to the Noecker family. She reported that today was picture day for students and staff who wanted to have a redo on their photos. Yesterday the Kindergarten had their Haunted House which was a big hit with everyone. The district is in the process of completing our monthly safety drills. There has been one fire drill and an off-site evacuation is scheduled in the near future. the freedom to speak but please be advised that anything said in public may have legal ramifications and there is no protection regarding statements made by the public. Please state your name and sign in before you begin.

A member of the community asked, why Mara Trager, who will receive $2,000/day, is needed and why can't we share services with West Essex? Response: Ms. Somers answered that Words Their Way is one piece of balanced literacy and is based on teacher input. The cost is coming from NCLB Title I funds to provide value. Shared services is being considered in discussions with regional superintendents. The Superintendent said she has not seen a morale issue. Yes, change can be stressful, but being progressive and meeting the increased demands by the State and performance reviews means we are working with the new team to heal and move forward.

The public questioned why is the audio technician getting $2,000 for the school play? Response: Mr. Surdyn, the audio technician is also the music teacher. The stipend is capped and it is a small price for such a wonderful event. Mr. Surdyn is a wonderful teacher and this accurately reflects his hard work and dedication. We are happy to have him.

A member of the community asked about longevity and if tied to a reduction in force? Response: Due to turnover over the years, the district is redoubling efforts to ensure all employee information is accurate and complete as well as properly maintained on file. We will work with staff to ensure there is no misunderstanding of purpose.

Additionally, longer time in the classroom will be a pilot program in 2017-2018 and a district will be able to review student teachers almost as if it was an interview process.
