In Partnership with Roseland SEPAC

Parent Involvement in Special Education: “Basic Rights”

During this Workshop:

Parents will learn to identify their dreams and goals for their children and their rights and responsibilities as parents of children with special needs under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). Families will also gain the knowledge and strategies necessary to be equal partners in the special education process.

This Workshop is for:

Parents of children who are already receiving special education services and parents and of children who are having difficulty in school, but may have not been determined to be eligible for special education services will benefit from this training.
